The Celebration of New Ministry
The Rev. Jered Weber-Johnson Installed as Our New Rector
Dear Friends in Christ,

When I was a kid, like many of you, I was involved in a class project planting trees near our school. To this day, I can go back to the school and see their progress, almost like a living calendar marking the years as they’ve passed. The trees were first almost invisible, tucked in to folds in the small hill outside our classroom. Then as I neared high school, they were small saplings, stout but still slender and immature – not quite big enough in my mind to deserve the title “tree”. As summers passed and I returned home, they had developed into a small forest of young trees, branches reaching up into the sky, shading the eaves of the school, and providing shelter for birds of every feather.

Last week I talked about trees as an apt metaphor for so much of our life of faith. Our Adult Ed curriculum this fall is focusing on rootedness, looking at the things that keep us firmly grounded as a church and as a community. Our annual stewardship campaign is also focusing in on rootedness and growth. The theme of the campaign this year is Growing in God’s Mission: Reaching Out in Faith – Rooted in Love. Perhaps you noticed the logo around the tables at our parish ministry fair in September. Our stewardship co-chairs, Rex Haberman and Jennifer Durst, have been working diligently along with a small team of folks to plan and execute this year’s annual giving, and you will be hearing more from them in this issue and with mailings that should be arriving in your homes soon. Also check out our stewardship page at www.stjohnsstpaul.org. (this year you can pledge online!)

I join with the leadership of this year’s campaign in inviting you to not only prayerfully consider how to support St. John’s in the year to come, but how you can do so in bold faith. In order to grow into the mission God has called us to, we will need 1) new pledges, 2) increased pledges, and 3) more involvement through volunteering, prayers, and leadership. The stewardship team, co-chairs, your vestry and I recognize that in asking this we are asking an already deeply committed, faithful, and dedicated community to do even more. In asking we are not denying that there is already much being done.

However, as the discovery document articulated and as so many of you have already told me in one-on-one conversations, there is even more that we can do and are able to do as this part of the Body of Christ in St. Paul. If you’ve never pledged, do. No pledge is too small. If you are already pledging, consider increasing by a percentage this year – a piece of advice I heard recently was “give enough that you care”. And, with that care, follow up and get even more involved.

St. John’s is rooted in so many ways – in the faithful giving of past generations seen most clearly in our endowment, in the beautiful and well-kept physical space that we inhabit, and in the legacy of generosity that so defines us as a church. So, too, we are reaching out in myriad ways. Our program branches out in glorious worship, inreach and pastoral care to our members, formation for all ages, and vibrant outreach ministries that translate our faith into action in the world. All of this requires careful and thoughtful tending and stewardship, and all of this requires your participation. Thank you for considering how you will partner with us as we Grow in God’s Mission at St. Johns.

Faithfully,

Jered+

All Saints Evensong and a Bluegrass Mass

St. John’s choir will sing Evensong in observance of All Saints Day on Sunday, November 6, at 4 pm, followed by the concert performance of a Bluegrass Mass. The service, the concert and the following reception will be the culmination of the Stewardship Campaign and provide a grand opportunity for the parish to celebrate its rich life and vibrant ministry at St. John’s.

For the service, the choir will sing an Anglican Chant setting of Psalm 148, the proper psalm for All Saints Day. The Phos Hilaron, the hymn, and the gospel canticles (the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis to plainsong settings) will be sung by the entire congregation. The rector, the Rev. Jered Weber-Johnson, will officiate.

The parish choir will be joined by the nationally known Bluegrass band Monroe Crossing. Formed officially in 2000 from three pre-existing bands, Monroe Crossing has been performing full-time since October 2004. The players are Art, Lisa, Matt, Mark and Benji, most of whom have been with the band from the beginning. Art Blackburn (guitarist and vocalist) has been called “a font of creative flatpicking for decades” and is the manager of the band. Lisa Fuglie (mandolin, fiddle and vocalist), originally from Nigeria, is a prolific songwriter and educator. Matt Thompson (mandolin, singer, arranger and MC) received the Minnesota Bluegrass and Old-Time Music Association’s Bluegrass Mandolin Player of the Year Award in 2000. Mark Anderson (string bass) is one of the Midwest’s elite Bluegrass bass players. And Benji Flaming (banjo) is a multi-instrumentalist and the engineer of the band’s critically-acclaimed debut CD, “Across The Blue Mountains.” The band now plays an average of 125 shows every year. For further information please see their website at www.monroecrossing.com.

The Bluegrass Mass—The World Beloved, by Twin Cities composer Carol Barnett, is organized around the traditional Mass parts, namely, the Kyrie, the Gloria, the Creed, the Sanctus and the Agnus Dei. But most of the texts are unrelated to the Mass and take a fresh look at what it means to plead for grace, to rejoice, to believe, and to break bread.

The now-famous receptions that always follow Evensong in the Fireside Room will be topped and exceeded for this occasion, with the concerted help of the Fellowship Committee.

Please join us for this remarkable event, and bring a friend that should see what we’re doing here at St. John’s for the creation of the kingdom on earth.

St. Mary’s Episcopal Church, you may remember, is our partner in helping families in the process of rising out of poverty through a year of housing assistance. Both parishes are currently assisting families. Although we didn’t plan it this way, the family Project Kathleen is helping knows the family that St. Mary’s is assisting.

These two families are similar in that they live in the same apartment complex, both moms are employed, and each has a 14-year-old son participating in public high school football for the first time through financial assistance. Our PK family also has a daughter who, with some support from her father, has just graduated from Dartmouth College.

Linda Zelig from St. John’s is the mentor for the family sponsored by St. John’s.

Kathleen is helping knows the family that St. Mary’s is assisting.

January 29, 2012: Hymn Sing – Bring your instrument and play along

April 29, 2012: Sharing Travel Stories and Slide Show – Send us your favorite travel photos

July 29, 2012: Sundaes on Sunday – Meet St. John’s newest members and May House residents in their new courtyard

This is a great way to get acquainted with our community outside of St. John’s and to make some new friends. It’s also a great ministry for families to do together.

If you would like to join us or make treats for one of these gatherings, please contact Sarah Nowlin – 651-699-4879 or the Rev. Keely Franke – keely.franke@stjohnsstpaul.org or 651-228-1172, ex. 18.

New mothers everywhere appreciate the thoughtfulness and usefulness of a baby gift. So on Saturday, October 22, at 10:00 the women of St. John’s and Holy Apostles are invited to gather in the Undercroft to assemble gifts for new babies in Kayoro. The gifts will be put in zip lock bags for easy transport and cleanliness. We will also include a note for the new mother in each bag. Look for a sample bag in the undercroft.

To complete these bags, the Clinic Committee is asking for donations of new receiving blankets, knit newborn hats, flat bar soap, and teething rings.

St. John’s adopted the May House at the Episcopal Church Homes last year. The Episcopal Church Homes is made up of households with residents ranging from independent to assisted living. We will be doing activities quarterly with the May House which has around 15 residents. Last year we played bingo and planted pansies, which was a huge hit. Our first event this year will be:

Update: St. John’s Clinic Kayoro

By Jennifer Kinkaid

In September of 2008, St. John the Evangelist Church committed to take part in the Episcopal Church’s Millennium Development Goals to impact and reduce poverty. The Rev. Barbara Mraz took on the task of determining how this congregation of 300 families could make a difference in the lives of those living on under $1 a day. The timing was difficult as in the fall of 2008 the United States was experiencing the strongest recession in generations. Barbara proceeded to interview organizations that would be potential partners. She and a team of parishioners determined that Give Us Wings, a small St. Paul based nonprofit, had a mission and a vision that fit well with the goals of St. John’s MDG outreach. The partnership began.

The campaign was named “One Good Thing” to remind us that even in the toughest of economic times, we could come together as a group and think of others. We could do this “One Good Thing.” We not only raised the money for the clinic but also exceeded the $75,000 that had been set as our goal.

Kayoro Village is a remote, rural village located in eastern Uganda. The people of this community have very little, and health and survival are basic challenges.

The building of St. John’s Clinic Kayoro was completed in December of 2010. The clinic passed inspection with the Ugandan Department of Health in January of 2011, and in September of 2011 our new “In-Charge Clinician” was hired to run the clinic. Her name is Faith Karakacha. In Uganda a board must be created to oversee the hiring of the In-Charge Clinician and the board agreed unanimously that Faith was the right applicant for the job. We await information on her background and experience.

Over the past three years, in an effort to create a relationship with the people of Kayoro:

~We have created a video of members of our congregation telling the people of Kayoro our reasons for building the clinic. Our words have been translated into Swahili on the video.

~Members of St. John’s painted tiles, with messages of love, that were embedded in the walls of the clinic.

~We created and sold holiday cards that featured the plan for the clinic and, in year two, the image of the actual clinic. We also sold gift certificates during the holiday season to be given by our congregation in lieu of gifts to benefit the clinic.

~Children in Godly Play found Kayoro on a map and made cookie kits to sell as a fundraiser.

~We made dresses and shorts with Holy Apostles Church for the children of Kayoro Village.

~Four members of St. John’s (Cammie Beattie, Shirey Sailors, Bob Horn and myself) visited Kayoro Village and hung a painting of St. John’s during the dedication of the clinic. We spent time with the people of the community learning about their lives and teaching them about our lives.

As our goal is to be in relationship with the people of Kayoro Village, it is important to continue to connect with them. So we will:

~Collect first aid supplies and prenatal vitamins for the people of Kayoro. We will put together first aid kits for the community Health Care Workers of Kayoro on Oct. 30, 2011 to be distributed to the community.

We will place a collection box in the narthex for first aid supplies. Useful supplies are:

Bacitracin
Band-aids
Tylenol
Motrin
Advil
Vitamins
Tums
Prenatal Vitamins
Neosporin
Triple Antibiotic Ointments

~We will collect receiving blankets and newborn hats and bundle them together as gifts for the newborns and mothers in Kayoro. We will get together with Holy Apostles Church on Oct. 22 to put together the gifts.

~We will send letters and artwork from the people of St. John’s to the people of Kayoro. We will send paper and crayons for children at the clinic so that they can send us notes and artwork.

~Godly Play children and the Youth Group are learning about life in Uganda.

~We created a St. John’s Clinic Kayoro committee on Sept. 11. Please join us by contacting Jennifer Kinkead at khunterlane@aol.com

We are making a difference in this small village, and at St. John’s we continue to reap the rewards of this One Good Thing.
The Great Parking Adventure (Part 3)
By the Rev. Barbara Mraz

“JP” from the Traffic Engineering Division of St. Paul and I are now on a first-name basis. I'll be dropping by his office again soon to discuss placement of new “signage. We chat.

Compelled by the urgency of the Parking Problem, at its last meeting the Vestry approved additional parking signs for three areas near the church to help reduce further the number of those pesky $33 tickets. This will be in addition to the two new signs already placed on Kent and Holly. At our next get together, JP will be advising us (well, me) about where best to place the three signs the church has requested. Then we’ll need the okay from the wardens, etc.

Turns out, signs cost. (And the location must be approved by the City AFTER they come out, take a look and get back to you). The ones on Holly were free since one of them replaced a sign that fell down, went missing, was stolen, or who knows? The city kicked in a “No Parking Corner to Here” sign attached to the other sign and did not bill us. Why? Who knows but perhaps “building relationships” extends to the parking domain? I’m just saying.

Interesting what the signs cost:

One sign = $170.92
Two signs = $302.60
Three signs = $328.64

J.P. couldn’t help me when I questioned the math here. (If anyone sees an inner logic here, please share).

Don’t look for the signs soon. It takes about four weeks but maybe ours will be here sooner (“relationships”).

The Adventure is not over, however. More next month on the next phase.

It involves art.

Newcomer Gatherings

Welcome to St. John’s!

If you are new to St. John's or want to learn more about your church, we invite you to this series of gatherings created especially for you.

Exploring Membership Gatherings October

October 9 – Getting Acquainted: Meet the rector and share your story. [9 a.m. Meditation Room]

October 16 – All About the Episcopal Church: Watch a video on the Episcopal Church. Learn about how the Episcopal Church came to be. Crack open a Prayer Book and see what that’s about.

October 30 – “Sundaes on Sunday” @ Kirsten and Frank Loiseaux-Purcell’s house 3:30-5:30pm. This is a great chance to meet more people from St. John’s in an informal gathering.

Our Exploring Membership Gatherings are a 3-week series, repeated several times through the year. We will then be welcoming our newest members on All Saints Sunday November 6th at our 10am service.

If you have questions or want further information, please contact:

Met our New Sexton

Chris Tegeler is our new sexton, having begun work in mid-September. He will be at St John’s from Sunday through Thursday from 7:00 to 3:30, and help with events as needed. He has found St. John’s to be a very friendly place and says the building is in remarkably good condition, given its age.

Chris grew up in Highland Park and attended high school at Cretin. He has an eleven-year-old son, Aiden, and still lives in the St. Paul area. Before coming to St. John’s, he worked for 12 years at Nativity Catholic School and Parish in Highland (his former grade school).

Be sure to greet Chris when you see him around the building and extend him a warm welcome!

COMPLINE

Please join us for Compline every Thursday evening at 7pm. Second Thursdays of the month will be Sung Compline.

Compline is the last of the daily offices. In keeping with the earliest practices of the monastic communities, Compline is offered by candlelight at a time when the work of the day is finished and the quietness of evening begins to settle over the hearts and minds of those gathered in prayer. This is a short service of prayers, psalms, chanting, and short passages from scripture.

The first Sung Compline is on Thursday, October 13th at 7pm in the Choir Stalls.

Incense will be present at this service, as well as the Holy Spirit, so beware.

For more information please contact the Rev. Keely Franke – keely.franke@stjohnsstpaul.org or 651-228-1172, ex. 18.

Corner on Hospitality

By the Rev. Keely Franke

The word hospitality derives from the Latin hostis, which originally meant "to have power." The meaning of "host" can be literally read as "lord of strangers." And indeed we worship a God who is the Lord of strangers. Jesus welcomed the poor and the stranger into his midst, and when he forgot that this was his calling, a Canaanite woman in the Gospel of Matthew reminded him: "Yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table."

At St. John’s, we strive to welcome all people into our midst and to our table. Yet even like Jesus, we all need to be reminded from time to time how to do this well.

Greeters Ministry is a new ministry we have added to the Sunday morning experience. This is an easy way for a friendly face to get involved and welcome people into our doors.

Introduce yourself to an unfamiliar face. Smile. Invite someone to get involved. If someone looks lost, help them find their way.

If you are interested in getting involved please contact the Rev. Keely Franke – keely.franke@stjohnsstpaul.org or 651-228-1172, ex. 18.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Wednesday, October 5. 6:30pm
Parking Lot
All pets and their humans welcome.
Dear Saint John’s Parishioner:

It is our honor to serve as your 2011 stewardship co-chairs. We have a wonderful team of people to work with to get this important job done for our St. John’s community. This year’s annual giving campaign theme is Growing in God’s Mission: Reaching out in Faith, Rooted in Love. While we are looking to grow, to expand our mission, and to reach out in faith, we recognize that we can only do these things by nourishing our deep roots, tending to our beautiful physical plant, and strengthening our endowment. Indeed, we already have strong roots of love in the people and programs established here at St. John’s.

In the current financial uncertainty that grips our world, you may have concerns about declaring a pledge. We would encourage you that now is actually a perfect time to claim your priorities. Now is the time to say, “St. John’s is my church home and it is an ultimate priority.” It is the place where you and your families find spiritual nourishment, worship God, enjoy music, find solace, grow friendships, and are challenged to live out your faith.

We are blessed at St. John’s to have such a beautiful building, intelligent and compassionate staff, and a myriad of ministries already in place: Adult Ed, Godly Play, Music, Fellowship, Project Kathleen, Project Home, the clinic in Kayoro Village, just to name a few. We are currently blessed enough to be in a place to be able to serve our parishioners, our local community and the world. We want to be able to sustain that and grow our capacity to do even more ministry, outreach, and worship.

This year, we start from a $22,000 budget deficit. While we are blessed to have an endowment (given largely by parishioners who are no longer with us), the current draw on the endowment (5-6%) is unsustainable in today’s investment environment, which features a 0% return on cash and 2% return on government bonds. Without our endowment, we would have to reduce funding to our ministries by 30%. It is our hope that over time, we are able to increase pledge amounts and actual number of pledges to a point where we are able to support and grow our ministries without a budget deficit and simultaneously decrease the draw on our endowment to a sustainable rate. Our goal this year is an increase in pledge dollars AND actual pledges by 10%.

We are a congregation of generous people. Please think progressively, proportionately and prayerfully about your giving. We ask that you consider all that God has provided in your life and that you honor God in your pledge in the coming year. We have so much to celebrate and be thankful for. We look forward to celebrating with all of you at the Ingathering Celebration on Sunday, November 6th at the 10 AM service and at a party following the Evensong that evening when we come to the end of this year’s stewardship campaign. Thank you for all the ways you already keep us rooted, reaching out, and growing here at St. John’s.

In Christ,

Rex Haberman and Jennifer Durst
The new history of St. John’s will be called For All the Saints: A History of St. John the Evangelist and will be published by the Afton Historical Society Press, of which parishioner Patricia McDonald is publisher. An Advisory Committee—consisting of Alden Drew, Jim Johnson, Dusty Mairs, Patricia McDonald, Betty Myers and Fred Myers—has worked very hard throughout the process, advising writer Jim Frazier, doing research, and raising the large amount of money needed to produce the book.

Frazier has conducted interviews with a number of long-time parishioners and collected photos from a variety of people—as well as the Minnesota Historical Society—so that the book will be chock full of photos.

He has also discovered some interesting facts about the buildings and the property on which they stand. For instance, if you look up and to the right of the main altar, you can see the top of a staircase that used to extend to the floor. It reaches up to a platform above the reredos, where the herald angels would stand (precariously!) during the famed Christmas pageants presented by adults in years past.

The no-parking zone outside on Kent St. was established to accommodate the truck from radio station WTCN that broadcast the services at St. John's from 1936 and running into the 1960s.

The construction of the Parish House, containing the offices, the classrooms and the sexton’s apartment, required the removal of three houses from that site to other nearby locations. One of them was moved to 500 Holly where parishioners Jerry Woelfel and Becky Garthofner make their home.

We would love to find a photo of St. John’s frame building that stood on the corner of Ashland and Mackubin, before the congregation moved to Kent St. Do you have one, or know where we could find one?

The manuscript will go to the publisher at the end of December, and the book published sometime in 2012.

If you have any questions about the book, or if you have a story or tantalizing facts about the parish, please contact anyone on the Advisory Committee, or Jim Frazier (651 228-1172 x38; james.frazier@stjohnsstpaul.org).
Gathering Sunday

PLEASE HELP!

Jim Frazier has not been able to find the names of those in whose memory the large Benedicite window over the main door of the church was placed in 1938. But they are contained on “a framed card of great beauty” that was designed in 1945 by a local commercial artist named Menzo Van Esveldt. The card is not contained in the parish archives. If you have a copy of this print, would you loan it to Jim for use in the new parish history? Contact him at 651 228-1172 x38; or james.frazier@stjohnsstpaul.org.

Does anyone know the origin of these two pieces of furniture? One is the buffet that sits at the south end of the Gathering Space and the other is the cabinet in the historian’s office. If you know anything about where these came from, please contact Fred Myers. Thank you.
