Stewardship

We love the clergy, the outreach, the liturgies, the warm hospitality of virtually everyone who worships here. We enjoy several ministries and feel as though we are actually doing God's work in the world.

- Gwen & Eric Odney

As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace.

- 1 Peter 4:10

We are thankful to be in a church that does so much community outreach: with homeless, students, and special needs groups. I'm grateful to be in a choir that has so many members with excellent knowledge of music. We find the faith formation sessions enlightening and enjoy the Thursday book group and its meaningful discussions. The LGBT outreach is also something we are especially glad to see. We have found meaningful friendships with members of our house group.

- Otto Paier & Ed Stieve

While I'm not able to attend church in person very often, I appreciate the weekly emails and mailings. I'm happy to see new groups and ministries forming—a busy parish is necessary for growth.

- Betty Myers

On behalf of the Men's Blue Book Study Group, I express our deepest gratitude for the use of your beautiful facility. Your generosity means a great deal to us and the space you have shared with us has been central to our experience. To feel welcome as we do by your community strongly facilitates our return to a bright and uplifting society that many of us have struggled so deeply to become part of in our past lives.

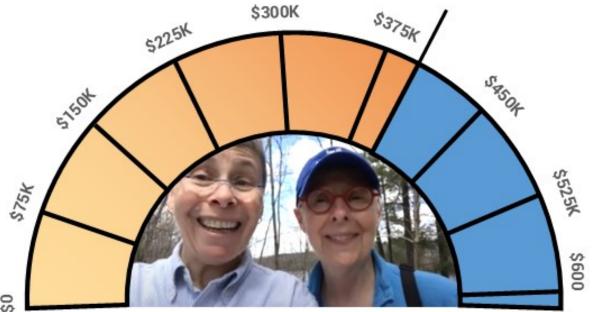

For us, St. John's is not just a place for us to meet. It has become our home for gaining control of our lives through communion with our higher power. We have seen this miracle unfold for hundreds of men within the doors of your amazing church. For that we thank you.

In giving to St. John's, you support ministries that improve the lives of our congregation and those we support within and beyond our walls. All contributions, big and small, go to make this goal achievable.

The Discernment Wheel

Each of us is created, unique, in God's image.

Each of us came into this world with Godgiven specific gifts, passions, values, and skills. Each of us has developed skills and has been called on to perform certain tasks repeatedly, simply because we are good at them.

Your vocation in life is where your greatest joy meets the world's greatest need.

—Frederick Buechner, theologian

Closing Prayer (Ephesians 3:14-21)

Almighty God, according to the riches of your glory, grant that we may be strengthened in our inner beings with power through your spirit; that Christ may dwell in our hearts through faith; that we may be rooted and grounded in love.

Your power working within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine.

To you be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.
